THE MAIN EVENT! A 5K run to save your humanity - you'll dash past zombies of all sorts through Garvin Park and along the Pigeon Creek Greenway Passage. If you're feeling like a little extra fun come in your best costume, we'll have a costume judging for race participants between the finish of the race and start of race awards.	Start the day with a spooktacular stroll! You're free to go as slow as you dare.... but don't dally too long. The park is populated by loitering zombies who'd love to make new friends. If you're feeling like a little extra fun come in your best costume, we'll have a costume judging for race participants between the finish of the race and start of race awards.	If you'd like to run to support TOUCH but can't join us in the park, register as a Phantom Runner. If you're in town, you can pick up your race shirt and packet during packet pickup Oct. 28; if not, we'll mail it to you so you don't miss out. We'd love to have photos of our Phantom Runners (in or out of costume) to share on the website with the race pics. If you'd like to send us one, email it to contact@touchindiana.org	The un-timed Kidz Costume Dash is free, but please register ahead of time so that we have enough awards prepared. Each participant will receive a participation award. Costumes are welcome but not required. (Safety first! Please don't wear costumes that could cause difficulty running or walking.)
